

BALTIMORE
CITY COLLEGE

Mathematics Teacher

Baltimore City College seeks a Mathematics teacher for the 2021-22 school year.

The ideal candidate is one who: Has strong coursework (graduate level preferred) in Math • Is passionate about math and learning • Is familiar with current research, trends, best practices and pedagogy • demonstrates an interest in ongoing professional development • Understands and loves working with high school aged students. • Has experience with the International Baccalaureate Program • Is committed to and interested in working in a diverse, multi-cultural environment. • Demonstrates commitment to working collaboratively with colleagues • Is comfortable working with technology • Specifically, the candidate will be comfortable teaching Calculus based Maths • Experience teaching advanced level courses i.e. AP, IB, Cambridge welcome.

Minimum Qualifications:

- BA/BS in Math or related field (Masters or higher preferred)
- Hold or be eligible for MSDE Certification (Conditional Certification is possible)
- Experience teaching/coaching/tutoring/mentoring high school students

Baltimore City Public Schools is an equal opportunity employer and encourages resumes from bi-lingual or multi-lingual candidates.

E-Mail Cover Letter, Resume, contact information for three references, and Statement of Educational Philosophy (optional) to:

Seth Hedderick
Assistant Principal/Director of Academics
Baltimore City College
shedderick@bcps.k12.md.us

Baltimore City College