- Leading with a Lens of Inquiry

Give One, Get One

- Take two minutes to write down:
 - 1) Something you learned today that you are excited to implement at your school.
 - 2) Something you learned today that you are interested in implementing at your school, but aren't sure how you are going to do so.
 - 3) A “yeah, but” that you thought of today: In other words, an obstacle or barrier you believe stands in the way of inquiry-based leadership.

Give One, Get One

- Find a partner, and take 4 minutes to discuss:
 - Something you learned today that you are excited to implement at your school.

Give One, Get One

- Find a NEW partner, and take 4 minutes to discuss:
 - Something you learned today that you are interested in implementing at your school, but aren't sure how you are going to do so.

Give One, Get One

- Find a NEW partner, and take 4 minutes to discuss:
 - A “yeah, but” that you thought of today: In other words, an obstacle or barrier you believe stands in the way of inquiry-based leadership.

Compass Point Exit Ticket

- Take a few minutes to draw and complete the following exit ticket:

Need: What do you still need to know to effectively implement inquiry-based leadership?

Excites: What excites you about inquiry-based leadership?

Wondering: What are you currently wondering about inquiry-based leadership?

Step: What are the next steps you will take to shift toward inquiry-based leadership?
