

Green Run Collegiate (GRC) is seeking a highly qualified high school art teacher with art and digital photography experience to be part of an exciting innovative public charter school. This school is located in Virginia Beach, Virginia. If you are passionate about helping students learn and grow significantly, and you are described by your students, colleagues, and parents as creative, accessible, compassionate, caring, personable, open-minded, respectful, analytical, reflective, engaging, inquisitive, data-driven, scholarly, collegial, passionate, and a relationship builder (with all stakeholders inclusive of on-going communication with parents and guardians), then Green Run Collegiate may be the school just for you.

Green Run Collegiate (GRC) prefers teacher-facilitators who have IB and/or AVID experience or teacher-facilitators who are open to attend both IB and AVID professional development opportunities to further develop and implement a concept-based curriculum to include interdisciplinary units of study. Teacher-facilitators are expected to be well-versed in differentiating instruction for a diverse student population. Teacher-facilitators are also expected to act as mentors who collaborate with students to develop personal learning plans which will be modified based on student progress. Qualified teacher-facilitators will seek opportunities to coach or advise students in extracurricular activities to include community service. Going above and beyond for students is the norm for GRC teachers; they are open to working a flexible schedule which may change yearly based on student needs.

Most importantly, GRC teacher-facilitators exhibit a mindset that all students can achieve their goals. They understand that students need to take risks and take ownership for their own acquisition of knowledge. These educators are scholars themselves, seeking opportunities to improve their content knowledge as well as their pedagogical practices to engage and enhance learning experiences for student scholars. GRC teacher-facilitators thrive in a collaborative learning culture where the primary goal is focused on student learning.

GRC teacher-facilitators must meet all Virginia Beach requirements to include holding at least a Bachelors Degree in the applicable field of study from an accredited college or university. He or she must also be eligible for a teacher license from the Virginia Department of Education with appropriate endorsements for subject areas.

Required IB and AVID Training will be paid for by Green Run Collegiate. This training is mandatory.
