NOTES
Session description: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do you have an MYP evaluation visit coming up, and are you curious/nervous about submitting units to the Building Quality Curriculum (BQC) service? • Or, has your school received BQC feedback on the units submitted and might you be disappointed/confused/wondering about what that feedback means? If so, this session is for you! I have been a senior reviewer, reviewer and reviewer trainer with the BQC service since it was developed in 2015, and would love to share a behind-the-scenes peek into the BQC reviewing process. Hopefully this session will help to minimize the stress involved in submitting units and even help you look forward to the process. In this session, you will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • learn what the MYP BQC service is and is not, • gain confidence and feel reassured about unit sections that might get/have gotten a “beginning” level indicator, • see how a sample unit is reviewed so that you can consider your own units from a BQC perspective, • learn how the BQC process can be used to generate subject group team collaboration and dynamic discussions with the Evaluation site visit team! Hope to see you on May 4th!
