

Science - Biology and Environmental Studies

Located in Severn, Maryland, Archbishop Spalding School is a Roman Catholic college preparatory school that is committed to challenging students to grow spiritually, academically, physically, and socially. The school community provides a caring environment that affirms the dignity of the individual and promotes learning.

Archbishop Spalding High School is accepting applications for the position of Environmental Science/Biology teacher for the 2021-2022 academic year.

The Ideal Candidate Will Possess:

- Bachelor's degree or higher in Education or Science
- Qualifications needed for MSDE secondary certification
- In-depth knowledge of a variety of areas of science, including (but not limited to) Biology and Environmental Science.
- Experience teaching IB Environmental Systems and Societies is highly desirable
- A pedagogical knowledge that encourages critical thinking
- Understanding and appreciation for curriculum development and collaboration
- A passion for the 21st-century student
- Proficiency in utilizing digital or online platforms

Interested candidates should complete this form and email their cover letter and resume to employment@spaldinghs.org.