

Developed by the TOK team at George C. Marshall HS

TOK Presentation Planning Document

- Due the day of your presentation.
- If you work with another person, you do not need to turn in separate TOK Presentation Planning Documents.
- You may write on this sheet, or type up a separate sheet with your responses.

Name of Presenter(s):

Title of Presentation:

What is the real life situation under consideration?:

What are three (3) TOK knowledge issues that will be the focus of your presentation? (These must be expressed as questions.)

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Write a summary in note form (for example, a bullet point list), of the way you plan to deal with knowledge issues during your presentation.

Ten (10) Seminar Questions that you will have ready to facilitate group discussion (having more than 10 ready is recommended):

- | | |
|----|-----|
| 1. | 6. |
| 2. | 7. |
| 3. | 8. |
| 4. | 9. |
| 5. | 10. |

Ways of Knowing and Areas of Knowledge that will be addressed during your presentation (use a star(s) for major focus and check marks for minor focus):

Ways of Knowing		Areas of Knowledge
<input type="checkbox"/> sense perception		<input type="checkbox"/> math
<input type="checkbox"/> language		<input type="checkbox"/> natural sciences
<input type="checkbox"/> emotion	<input type="checkbox"/> religion	<input type="checkbox"/> human sciences
<input type="checkbox"/> reason	<input type="checkbox"/> culture	<input type="checkbox"/> history
		<input type="checkbox"/> the arts
		<input type="checkbox"/> ethics