

IBMA PYP Breakout Session

Friday, September 20, 2019

1. People to invite to the October 18th meeting
 - a. math lead
 - b. multicultural coach/specialist
 - c. teacher leader or team lead
 - d. someone who is interested in applying to be an IBEN member
 - e. Instructional coach
2. Breakout sessions ideas for the October 18th meeting
 - a. Traditional break-out session for admins to network with others and experience how our break-out sessions are run
 - b. Discussion of PYP Enhancements
3. IBEN members present today
 - a. Becky Rosenberg, Washington Yu Ying Public Charter School, D.C.
 - b. Lijin Ying, Washington Yu Ying Public Charter School, D.C.
 - c. Sarah Harris, Washington Yu Ying Public Charter School, D.C.
4. New Program Standards and Practices update by Laura Lane
 - a. New information will be coming out hopefully in October to help with the next evaluation cycle.
 - b. You will use the old PSP if you are up for evaluation in the next year. If not, you will use the new PSP
 - c. There is a new platform for uploading documents called IB Concierge
5. PYP Networking Sessions for this year
 - a. Title I Schools, March 10th, hosted by Shannon Quinn from Randolph Elementary
 - b. PYP Enhancements: (Building for the Future)-January 30th at Monarch Global Academy and a smaller group for Elevating Agency to be held at Monarch Global Academy (date TBD)
 - c. Specialists with a time afterwards for coordinators and specialists to get back together to discuss (date and location TBD)
 - d. Exhibition (date and location TBD)
6. 2019-2020 Exhibition Dates
 - a. Please submit to Nicole as soon as you set your date.
 - b. Monarch Global Academy's Exhibition is March 1, 2020
7. $2000 Program Initiative Suggestions:
 - a. AJ Juliani – continuum, session preferred
 - b. Kim Beardon from the Ron Clark Academy-continuum session preferred, but there was some discussion about the high cost of this
 - c. Option to spread the invitation to Program Initiative PD to others too
8. Ryan Hack from ManageBac
 - a. Faria Education just acquired Atlas Rubicon to meld together software and educational planning

